SPRING BREAK SPEEDS UP!

...WITH THREE DAYS OF HOT LAPS AND HIGH DRAMA

NTT INDYCAR SERIES

It'll be experience vs. youth in this year's Long Beach racing highlight! Sixtime series champion Scott Dixon, two-time champion Josef Newgarden and two-time Long Beach winner Alexander Rossi will lead a platoon of veteran drivers that also includes Takuma Sato and Will Power around the legendary 11-turn course. The "young guns" will be led by defending INDYCAR champion Alex Palou, 2021 Acura Grand Prix of Long Beach winner Colton Herta and other promising up-and-comers, including Pato O'Ward and Marcus Ericsson. The 85-lap donnybrook takes the green flag at 12:45 p.m. Sunday.

IMSA WEATHERTECH SPORTSCAR CHAMPIONSHIP

Three high-speed classes – Daytona Prototype (DPi) and GTD PRO and GT Daytona (GTD) – will battle it out in 100 minutes of wheel-to-wheel action, including driver changes, Saturday on the city streets. The DPi field will include a variety of sleek, high-powered prototypes that includes Acura and Cadillac, while the GTD classes feature, among others, Acura, BMW, Ferrari, Lexus and Porsche.

SUPER DRIFT CHALLENGE

A pack of top Formula DRIFT drivers will be smoking, slipping and sliding their cars through Turns 9-10-11 under the lights in two action-packed races (7 p.m. Fri. and 6:30 p.m. Sat.).

SPEED/UTV STADIUM SUPER TRUCKS

Fender-bending is the order of the day as racing trucks go flying off ramps and bashing their way through the turns in the streets of Long Beach for two 30-minute battles (Sat. and Sun.). Series founder Robby Gordon won here last year, while Matt Brabham went on to capture the series championship.

PORSCHE CARRERA CUP NORTH AMERICA

Make no mistake: A driver's skill is what makes ALL the difference in this series. That's because the cars – road-based Porsche 911 GT3 Cup Cars – are identically prepared, and 30-35 sleek entries will battle through a pair of 40-minute races (Sat. and Sun.) as part of the series' 16-race 2022 schedule.

HISTORIC IMSA GTP CHALLENGE

Sleek, fast prototypes that scorched racetracks in the I980s and I990s – wheeled by star drivers like Geoff Brabham, Juan Manuel Fangio II, Scott Pruett and Al Unser Jr. – return to light up the track for two races Sat. and Sun., and include such classics as Ford, Jaguar, Mazda, Nissan, Lola, Porsche and Tovota.

MOTUL

WWW.SHOPMOTUL.COM

Founded in 1971 as a first 100% synthetic lubricant ever designed for cars, it was named 300V in tribute to the 300 victories obtained by the brand up to that point. It illustrates not only Motul's technological expertise and culture of innovation but also its ability to implement new technologies with the main car manufacturers. Over time, Motul has built up an impressive track record of many hundreds of victories in all the major motorsport events worldwide.
